

The Revolutionary War – Ending The War Thinking Questions

Instructions: To investigate the end of the War Of Independence, answer the questions below by using evidence from pg. 174 - 178 in the textbook and by adding interpretations from your own analysis of the time period.

1. In the later years of the war, how did Patriot military leaders earn small victories that weakened the British army and prolonged the fighting?
2. How did British strategy change after France entered the war on the side of the Continental Army?
3. How did guerilla attacks in the Carolinas affect the British army?

Name: _____

Date: _____

U.S. History

7th Grade

4. How did the Revolutionary War ultimately come to an end? Why did General Cornwallis surrender in Yorktown?

5. What did the newly independent nation gain from the Treaty Of Paris?

6. Why was the new nation's government called "The Great Experiment"?